The complex includes:

Spacious one- and two-bedroom apartments

Penthouses with panoramic ocean views

Owners may enjoy up to 90 days of private use per year, while the property is professionally operated as part of the hotel during the remaining time. During your stay, you are welcome to make use of the complex's private parking facilities.

The architecture follows a contemporary design language inspired by coral formations and the surrounding coastline. The interiors are characterized by minimalist white spaces and bright, open layouts, while the exterior and surrounding areas incorporate natural volcanic stone, reflecting the island's landscape.
