An old Canarian house in Taucho, consisting of three separate buildings. Two of them have been completely renovated with great attention to detail, maintaining their original character, and the third is ready for the new owner to finish to their liking. A property steeped in history, tranquillity and open views.

The property is located next to the church and square in the historic centre of Taucho, a traditional and peaceful setting. From the rear there are views of Mount Teide, and from the front you can enjoy views of the village and the islands of La Gomera and El Hierro. Here, tranquillity and silence reign supreme.

House A has access from the front to a small sunny terrace. Upon entering, a hallway leads to the bedroom and bathroom on the left, and on the right, a kitchen integrated with the living room. A wooden staircase leads to the upper floor, where the second bedroom with bathroom is located, which opens onto a large terrace.

House B, which is smaller, was completely rebuilt in 2008. On the upper floor, there is a bedroom with its own bathroom and terrace, and on the ground floor, there is a living room, kitchen and a second bathroom.

House C has not been renovated, offering an interesting opportunity to adapt it to personal taste, with the possibility of converting it into a garage.

The original buildings date back to 1900, adding character and authenticity to this unique complex in one of the most charming villages in the south of Tenerife.

If you are looking for a special property with history, views and multiple possibilities, please do not hesitate to request more information or arrange a viewing.
